Governor Chris Christie To Host 111th Town Hall Tomorrow In Morris County
Governor Christie Will Discuss Fiscal Year 2015 Budget And Making The Choices That Will Lead To A Better New Jersey

For Immediate Release
Tuesday, February 25, 2014

Contact: Michael Drewniak
Colin Reed
609-777-2600

Trenton, NJ – Following today's Fiscal Year 2015 Budget Address, Governor Chris Christie will travel to Long Hill tomorrow to host his 111th Town Hall Meeting. Governor Christie will discuss his budget priorities and the clear challenge in front of New Jersey: making the choice to not sacrifice the priorities that matter most to our state on the altar of exploding entitlement costs that are overwhelming the state budget – pension, health benefits, and debt service. Governor Christie laid out this looming crisis in detail and is calling on the Legislature to work with him in a bipartisan manner this year to build on the 2011 reforms and fix this system.

Residents can RSVP to TownHall.LongHill@gov.state.nj.us. Doors open at 9:30 am and seating is on a first come, first serve basis and open to the public. No bags of any kind are permitted in the venue and personal items are subject to search.
